

The Near Eastern Studies Department and Archeology Program Present:

“The Origins of Our Alphabet:
New Archaeological Evidence from Tel Zayit for the History of Writing in the Time of King Solomon”

Please Note the Date Change

Dr. Ron Tappy

Director of The Zeitah Excavations

G. Albert Shoemaker Professor of Bible & Archaeology,

Director of James L. Kelso Bible Lands Museum

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary

The Zeitah Excavations launched its inaugural season during the summer of 1999 with a 55-member international team of professional staff and volunteers. This summer students from Cornell will be traveling to Israel to excavate at Tel Zayit.

Wednesday, February 28th

7:30-9:00pm
White Hall 106